58.	A/RES/51/241-36	The First Committee and the Fourth Committee shall not meet simultaneously and may consider meeting in a sequential manner during the regular session of the General Assembly. This arrangement shall not apply if it affects their respective identities, programmes of work and effective consideration of their agendas.	Main Committees	Provision implemented on the ongoing basis. The secretaries of the First and Fourth Committee undertake consultation with the purpose of avoiding simultaneous meetings.

L. Provisions related to the General Committee
59.	A/RES/60/286-27 Also in: A/RES/58/316-5 (b)	Reiterates its call for the effective implementation of rule 42 of the rules of procedure of the General Assembly. Rule 42 reads: The General Committee shall meet periodically throughout each session to review the progress of the General Assembly and its committees and to make recommendations for furthering such progress. It shall also meet at such other times as the President deems necessary or upon the request of any other of its members”	General Committee	Since the adoption of the resolution 58/316 of 1 July 2004, the General Committee met throughout the session of the General Assembly.
60.	A/RES/51/241-33	The General Committee shall use its authority and competence, taking into account rule 43 of the rules of procedure, by allowing Member States that are not represented on the General Committee to participate in its discussions. The process of decision-making will continue to be as at present. Rule 43 reads: A member of the General Assembly which has no representative on the General Committee and which has requested the inclusion of an item in the agenda shall be entitled to attend any meeting of the General Committee at which its request is discussed and may participate, without vote, in the discussion of that item.	General Committee	Provision implemented on the ongoing basis.
61.	A/RES/58/316-5 (a)	The work of the General Committee shall be carried out in accordance with section VI of the rules of procedure of the General Assembly;	General Committee	Provision implemented on the ongoing basis.
62.	A/RES/58/316-5 (b)	The General Committee shall continue to meet throughout the session and to play the leading role in advising the General Assembly on the efficient organization, coordination and management of its work.	General Committee	Since the adoption of the resolution 58/316 of 1 July 2004, the General Committee met throughout the session of the General Assembly and played its leading role in advising the Assembly in the organization of its work.
63.	A/RES/58/316-5 (c)	To ensure the effective implementation of rule 42 of the rules of procedure of the General Assembly, the General Committee shall meet regularly throughout the session with the bureaux of the Main Committees to review the progress of the work of the Main Committees and to make recommendations for furthering such progress;	General Committee	Since the adoption of the provision, the General Committee met throughout the sessions of the General Assembly to ensure the effective implementation of rule 42 of the rules of procedure. Main Committee Chairmen regularly briefed General Committees on the work of their Committees.
64.	A/RES/58/316-5 (d)	In July of each year, the General Committee shall conduct a review of the proposed programme of work for the	General Committee	In response to this request the Secretary-General has submitted reports at the 58 th , 59 th , 60 th and 61 st sessions forthcoming session of the General Assembly, on the basis of a report to be submitted by the Secretary-General, and submit recommendations on the matter to the forthcoming Assembly. The report of the Secretary-General shall include information on the status of documentation to be issued during the forthcoming session;		of the General Assembly, including the requested information on the status of documentation (vide : A/58/864, A/59/860, A/60/971, A/61/1015 and their respective addenda).

65.	A/RES/58/316-5 (e)	The General Committee, meeting in open-ended consultations, shall continue to consider the further biennialization, triennialization, clustering and elimination of items of the customary agenda of the General Assembly and make recommendations thereon to the Assembly during its fifty-ninth session;	General Committee	Since the adoption of the provision the General Committee has made no recommendations to the General Assembly on the biennialization, triennialization, clustering and elimination of its items of the Assembly's customary agenda.
66.	A/RES/58/316-5 (f)	On the basis of proposals from the President of the General Assembly, and in the light of the positive experience during the fifty-eighth session, the General Committee shall be encouraged, as appropriate, to continue to schedule informal briefings on topical issues ;	General Committee	At the 58 th and 59 th sessions, the General Committee held a number of informal briefings on topical issues. Due to the rising number of thematic debates the practice of informal briefings in the GC has been limited to avoid duplications.
67.	A/RES/58/316-5 (g)	At the beginning of each session, the General Committee, following recommendations from the President of the General Assembly, shall recommend to the Assembly a programme of, and format for, interactive debates on the items on its agenda;	General Committee	Since the adoption of the provision the General Committee has made no recommendations to the General Assembly on a programme of interactive debates on the items on its agenda.
68.	A/RES/58/316-5 (h)	The General Committee shall continue to consider ways and means to further improve its working methods to increase its efficiency and effectiveness in all aspects, and make recommendations on the matter to the General Assembly for its decision by 1 April 2005.	General Committee	The General Committee continues to consider ways and means of improving its working methods. No recommendation has been made in that regard since the adoption of this provision.
69.	A/RES/58/126-B.1	The General Committee shall meet throughout the session and further improve its working methods to increase its efficiency and effectiveness. It will play the leading role in advising the General Assembly on the efficient organization, coordination and management of its work. In this connection, the Assembly will also consider proposals to reform the General Committee.	General Committee	The General Assembly at its 58 th session on 1 July 2004, adopted resolution A/ RES/58/316, by which inter alia decided on a number of measures with regard to the reform of the General Committee.
70.	A/RES/55/285-20	In order to enhance the capacity of the General Committee to assist the President of the General Assembly in the conduct of the business of the Assembly and to improve continuity between its different sessions, at the outset of each session, each Vice-President of the Assembly shall	General Committee	Provision implemented on the ongoing basis.

		designate a liaison person for the duration of the session. This designation may be made informally, without any amendment to rule 39 of the rules of procedure of the Assembly, by means of a letter to its President.
71.	A/RES/51/241-34	The General Committee may, each year, prior to the closure of the session, prepare suggestions based on its experience for the consideration of the incoming General Committee.	General Committee	Suggestions have been made on the ongoing basis during the informal meetings between upcoming and incoming general Committee.
72.	A/RES/51/241-35	The General Committee is requested to consider and recommend to the General Assembly methods and procedures for streamlining and rationalizing the Committee's work . The General Committee shall, in this context, in relation to each agenda item proposed, consider its rejection or its inclusion in the provisional agenda, taking into account previous recommendations of the General Committee and previous relevant decisions of the Assembly.
